

How Then Shall I Respond?

Romans 6:11-14

In light of such a great _____ of _____, how then should we respond?

1) Accept His sacrifice as our own.

_____ is a picture of _____ with the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ Himself!

2) Realize that something _____ has happened to us _____.

"We have died to sin, how can we continue in it any longer?" Romans 6:1

_____ is not a _____, and _____ are not _____.

3) Put into _____ the very spiritual reality that has happened in our inner being!

"In the same way, count yourselves dead to sin, but alive to God in Christ Jesus. Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body so that you obey its evil desires." Romans 6:11-12

4) We now have a _____.

We can stop _____ with our _____ of life.

We now have the _____ to _____ God with all of our being.

Sin is no longer our _____ because now we are _____ of grace!

"You have been set free from sin and have become slaves to righteousness." Romans 6:18

5) My response: He gave His _____ for us, so now I give _____ to Him.

"For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord."
Romans 6:23